

SYPHILIS? REALLY?

Yes, really. Once nearly gone in the U.S., syphilis is increasing, especially among gay, bisexual, and other men who have sex with men (MSM).

Syphilis increases the risk of getting HIV two- to five-fold. But syphilis is easily treated—if you know you have it. Sexually active MSM should be tested for syphilis every year.

Learn more at www.ashasexualhealth.org